

2020/21 £100k Freeroll FAQs & Game Rules

Q: What period does the contest cover?

A: The contest covers the entirety of the 2020/21 Premier League season

Q: How is the season broken up?

A: The season is broken up into 38 gameweeks, see appendix for full details. Note gameweeks 18a and 18b will be combined as gameweek 18.

Q: How many teams can I enter?

A: A user may enter an unlimited amount of teams

Q: How many players can I have from one Premier League team?

A: Each entry may have no more than two players from a Premier League team. A player's Premier League team is defined as the team they are listed under on Footstock at the point of entry into the contest.

Q: How many stars can my team consist of?

A: A team must consist of no more than 35 stars at the point of entry.

Q: Are there any positional restrictions?

A: A team must consist of one goalkeeper, three defenders, three midfielders, two attackers, and two utility players of any position. Player positions will be fixed for the entirety of the contest.

Q: Will my cards be locked once entered?

A: Yes, once entered cards are locked into the contest and can't be sold. A team can however be 'bought out' of the tournament for £15. If a team is bought out it is no longer eligible for any season-long prizes, and will be removed from the standings. Any Manager of the Week prizes already won are valid and will not be reclaimed. The £15 buy-out fee is stored by Footstock and goes towards a gw38 freeroll contest.

Q: How can I monitor my performance?

A: The £100k freeroll will be shown in the tournament lobby throughout the season. There are three separate leaderboards to view: overall, manager of the week, and highest overall single gameweek score.

Q: How are ties treated?

If two or more identical lineups finish in the prizes then the one submitted earliest will take precedence. If two or more non-identical lineups finish on the same points then prizes will be split, for Manager of the Week both teams' managers would receive a Footstock FC shirt alongside the split cash prize.

Q: How are rearranged fixtures treated?

A: Fixtures that move within their original intended gameweek (see appendix) will still be counted. Any fixtures that move to a date outside their original intended gameweek will be excluded from the contest. There will be no 'double gameweeks' for Premier League teams.

Q: What are the overall prizes?

A: Prizes for the overall scoring are as follows, each manager can only win one of the overall prizes:

1st - £25000

2nd - £10000

3rd - £5000

4th - £3000
5th - £2000
6th-10th - £1000
11th-50th - £500
51st to 100th - £200

Q: How does my team score points for the overall prizes?

A: Players score points as per our normal scoring matrix, and make up your team's score over a gameweek. Your best 6 gameweek scores as a team will make up your overall score.

For example let's say your team scores as follows in the first 8 weeks:

Gameweek 1 – 233 points

Gameweek 2 – 199 points

Gameweek 3 – 202 points

Gameweek 4 – 350 points

Gameweek 5 – 320 points

Gameweek 6 – 97 points

Gameweek 7 – 150 points

Gameweek 8 – 225 points

Your overall score is the best 6 gameweeks your team has had, so in this case it would be the weeks highlighted in bold added together:

$233 + 199 + 202 + 350 + 320 + 225 = 1529$  points

This means even teams entered late in the season have a chance at the overall prizes, as it's only your best 6 gameweeks that count.

Q: What are the prizes for 'single highest gameweek?'

A: Prizes for single highest gameweek are as follows, each manager can only win one of the single highest gameweek prizes

1st - £5000

2nd - £3000

3rd - £2000

Q: How does my team score points for the single highest gameweek prizes?

A: These prizes will go to the teams that have the highest single gameweek scores across the entire season. For example, if you score 466 points in Gameweek 29, and no other team matches that score across any gameweek, then you win the first place £5k prize.

Q: What are the prizes for Manager of the Week

A: Prizes for Manager of the Week GW's 1-38 are as follows, a manager can win unlimited Manager of the Week prizes

Gameweek 1 - £750 + a footstock FC shirt

Gameweeks 2-38 - £250 + a Footstock FC shirt

Q: How does my team score points for the Manager of the Week prizes?

A: Every team entered gets a score each gameweek, which is simply the team's total points from its 11 players. The team with the highest total points that gameweek wins Manager of the Week.

Q: Can teams be entered once the season starts (*revised 09/09/20)

A: Yes, teams can be entered throughout the Premier League season. A team entered during a gameweek will start to score points from the following gameweek. For example if a team is entered during gameweek 2 after the first kickoff, it will start to score points from gameweek 3.

Q: How will a further Covid shutdown, or other extraordinary circumstance, impact the contest?

A: Footstock reserves the right to alter the format and/or schedule of the contest should such an event occur. This will be communicated clearly on email to all users should it occur.
